C Requirements

The spouse who is receiving the transfer/distribution must choose one of the following:

Please choose one of the following options and provide the documents needed.

- Transfer. To transfer to another IRA, complete the current custodian's transfer form. Once they accept it, the current custodian will forward the form to Millennium for processing. A Medallion Signature Guarantee is required on the transfer form.
- Taxable Distribution. To take a complete taxable distribution of the IRA interest, complete this IRA Transfer Pursuant to Divorce For Former Spouse form and an IRA Distribution Request form, then submit both to Millennium. This distribution may be taxable to you and penalties and withholdings will apply. Complete all sections of the distribution form and sign in place of Account Owner. A Signature Guarantee is required.
- Establish a New IRA with Millennium Trust. To establish a new IRA with Millennium Trust to hold your IRA interest, complete the Adoption Agreement which is included in this packet.

Note: Trustee-to-Trustee transfers of interest in an IRA from one spouse to the IRA of the other spouse pursuant to a divorce decree or separation instrument are generally tax free and are not reported to the IRS.
